Reports

Dear Ms. Chacona:

As per our telephone conversation today, I am in receipt of and thank you for your two letters dated January 27, 2000 concerning the Commission's preliminary review of the report(s) referenced above. The above referenced reports correctly reflected the administrative expenses for Defend America PAC. The administrative expenses reflected in the reports correctly reflect payments made for the purpose of operating Defend America PAC, which included expenses for a post office box, postage stamps, stationary, envelopes, reception expenses, consulting and fundraiser fees, an Internet Web page, accounting and preparation of FEC report fees, supplies, software for FEC reporting, and other operation expenses. Administrative expenses recently received and paid in 1998 and 1999 were reflected in the monthly reports. There were no goods or services provided to the committee by any other person, committee, entity, except as reflected in the above referenced reports.
